

Business Intelligence Consultant

Primary Role

Delivering Business Intelligence Consultancy services

Description

The successful candidate will become a key component within our growing Business Intelligence Team delivering BI Services ranging from installation to training courses to general support to our world-class portfolio of clients. Training will be provided but essentially the successful candidate will have a strong knowledge of databases and enjoy working within a progressive and enthusiastic team. The role will involve travelling to customer sites across the UK.

Essential

- Excellent knowledge of databases
- Good communicator

Desirable

- Report writing experience (Crystal Reports)
- Experience in installing and configuring software
- Definition, design and development of universes, reports and Xcelsius Dashboards

Package

- Full time 37.5 hours per week – 9 to 5.30 pm
- Salary dependant upon experience
- Holidays are 20 days raising to 25 for long service + bank holidays
- BUPA after 2 years
- Ongoing accredited training provided.